The University will try to prevent disclosure of the identity of the employee reporting alleged misconduct without their consent. However, often the identity of an employee may become obvious to others due to the nature of the information. The employee's identity will be disclosed:
 - to any law enforcement agency investigating the matter;
 - to University employees assigned to investigate the matter;
 - to University administrators to the extent necessary to conduct an investigation (on a need to know basis);
 - if required pursuant to a subpoena or by law; and/or
 - if necessary to defend a grievance by an employee; or if required by due process in connection with disciplinary action against the person accused.
